Bulletin No. 09-07

February 5, 2007

Division of Workers' Compensation Los Angeles office closed today due to local fire

The Division of Workers' Compensation has closed its Los Angeles office for the day due to smoke and ventilation problems resulting from a local fire. All division employees have been sent home and cases set to be heard before the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board (WCAB) today will be rescheduled.

Injured workers should contact the division's Information Service Center at (213) 576-7335 or their attorney, if they are represented, to learn when their case has been rescheduled.

The office will be open tomorrow, Feb. 6, 2007.
